THE DAUGHTERS OF EVE God's Endtime Handmaidens

When God created the first female, He had a specific position and function that He intended for her to fulfill. Eve's fall into sin by deception ... stole this destiny and it cannot be realized unless women are born again, Holy spirit baptized females. Most women, including Christian women, do not understand their God given position of authority to fulfill their function as God's mouth piece and as Endtimes Handmaidens. In this CD, from a recently held meeting, Karen reveals some surprising Biblical facts regarding women and end-times events. REQUEST YOUR FREE COPY!

According to self-proclaimed NAR prophet, Mark Taylor, Donald Trump is God's chosen man for the next presidency.

*All Scripture is from the KJV or NKJV unless otherwise specified—all numbers are from the Strong's Concordance.

On the studygrowknowblog.com blog site I read the following statement: "Rabbi Jonathan Cahn is famous for books about what he calls "The Harbinger," which consisted of 9 harbingers to be exact that were said to be final warnings for America. Another individual by the name of Mark Biltz, of El Shaddai Ministries is known for teaching that the "blood-red moons" have had some major prophetic significance in these last days. The prophecies of these guys have come and gone, but both are said to be "reworking" their prophecies."

More and more Christians are becoming distracted, disillusioned and deceived by pseudo prophetic words and revelations, that aren't what they claimed to be, and little attention is really being paid to the truth of straight forward literal end-time teaching that is Biblical. Hunger for the forbidden knowledge from the Garden of Eden and Satan's lie that we benefit by obtaining such "knowledge" is ever increasing in these end-times. Much of this "knowledge" is being presented as new "revelation" that is also being disguised as Biblical interpretations from the allegorization of Scripture, which accommodates the agenda of well-known minister's false teachings and prophetic words. Yet, far too many professing Bible believing Christians are not taking the time to check out these teachers and really discern (know) their motives, methods and messages they say are "from God."

And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you. (1 Thess 5:12)

The word ADMONISH in the above verse, is the Greek word (Strong's 3559) nouthesia (noo-thes-ee'-ah) and the CWSD [1]: defines it as appealing to the conscience, will, and reasoning faculties of another. If we do not take the time to really KNOW (rightly discern) those who are appealing to our conscience, will, and reasoning faculties through their revelations and prophetic words—we will easily be deceived by what they teach and prophesy, especially when it is pleasing to our mind, will and emotions.

Mark Taylor

For instance, I recently was reminded that Harold Camping, an engineer-turned-radio-minister, taught that Jesus was physically coming to this earth... on several very specific occasions. He had a huge following that loved and received his message. Interestingly enough, on his third attempt (which also did not come to pass), Camping suffered a stroke and eventually died.

I see this as one of those occasions when God chose to judge an individual for daring to speak "in His Name" and ultimately became a false prophet because of it. I'm simply saying that there are too many who are willing to claim that God spoke to them and they're relaying the message when in point of fact, they are simply imagining things or hearing the voices of demons and failing to "test the spirits" as we are told to do in (1 John 4:1-2). What is most troubling about all of these individuals and their so-called prophecies is the complete lack of discernment, not only from the individual "prophets" themselves but from those who follow them.

One of the latest individuals to come to the forefront is a guy by the name of Mark Taylor, a retired firefighter. According to him, he says he was "given" a very specific prophecy in 2011 and apparently it has unfolded so that now he realizes that God has told him (definitively) that Donald Trump is God's choice to bring America back from utter destruction and that God told him that Donald Trump will be the next president and that anyone who criticizes him will be struck down, explaining that God has been preparing Trump for his entire life to become an extraordinarily successful president who will fight Satan. Now I see many are prophesying the same thing, after he released this word on certain well-known internet media outlets. I have always thought it very curious how false prophets use other “popular false prophecies” as the basis to prophesy their “word from God” that “confirms” and builds upon what is false and deceptive.

"Therefore," says the Lord, "I am against these prophets who steal messages from each other and claim they are from me... I am against these smooth-tongued prophets who say, 'This prophecy is from the Lord!' (Jer 23:30-21) NLT

I first heard of Mark Taylor from a radio ministry that promotes the ministries of other end-time watchmen who encourage being prepared for times of great chaos and tribulation. I had never heard of Mark Taylor—so I decided to listen to his “prophetic word” that was being promoted as a legitimate prophesy by this widely listened to radio ministry.[1] However, after hearing Taylor set the stage for this prophecy, I immediately discerned that Mark Taylor and his prophecy concerning Donald Trump was not going to be a true prophetic word.

I'm sure Mark Taylor is a very sincere man who may love God, but he is also a sincerely deceived man. After doing a little research I found what I had discerned about Mark Taylor was true, which was he is a “dominionist NAR” (New Apostolic Reformation) self-proclaimed prophet. I have reported many times, those involved in this heretical movement are tapping into the realm of sorcery and are “experiencing” very real supernatural experiences, such as “hearing words” they think are God but are actually messages from lying spirits. Those hearing and receiving these false “prophetic revelations” are what the Bible calls “enchanters”[2] who operate (knowingly or unknowingly through demonic powers.

There shall not be found among you any one that (is)... an enchanter, or a witch, Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits... (Deut 18:10-11)

An “enchanter” is defined as one who “learns by (demonic) experiences” (i.e. knowledge from demonic and occult powers). It is no secret that demonic spirits can give us many spiritual experiences such as revealing to us information that is very accurate and is for the sole purpose of causing

[1] You can listen to the TRUE NEWS broadcast with Rick Wiles interview with Mark Taylor and hear his prophetic word regarding Donald Trump at: https://youtu.be/tqwFWD\_Htfo

[2] ENCHANTER (Strong's 5173) nachash (nakh'-ash) as a noun it refers to a spell or an enchantment or an augury (an experience that is an omen or sign); (Strong's 5172) nachash (naw-khash'); as a verb it means it means it means to learn by experiencing a spell, to prognosticate (make predictions), to use enchantment (using something that causes people to become fascinated with, attracted to, or enamored with what is being used i.e. a (false) prophecy, omen, miracle, revelation) deception. This is the case with Mark Taylor and the information that he was given in 2011 concerning the campaign and presidency of Donald Trump.

I am amazed at seeing Christians, who say they believe what the Bible reveals regarding the end-time prophesied tribulation and persecution that is now facing God's people—becoming “CHARMED”<sup>[3]</sup> (enamored and fascinated) by false prophetic words like Taylor's “ENCHANTING” prophecy concerning Donald Trump. Again, to be “enchanted” also refers to being delighted and fascinated by something (deceptive). As I said, Taylor's prophetic word is very accurate in many of the details that he states were given to him in 2011 concerning Trump's campaign. However, when we hear and receive any prophecy because we are “fascinated” by the “accuracy” of what is said, we may fail to really discern where this information is coming from. May we never forget the fact that the girl who followed Paul around and prophesied by a spirit of divination, was also very accurate in what she said. However, Paul did not become “fascinated” by what she said, instead he discerned that a spirit of divination was at work in this girl and dealt with it accordingly...

And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying... The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, “these men are the servants of the most-high God, which show unto us the way of salvation... And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.” (Acts 16:16-17)

I find it ironic that this same spirit is still crying out through false prophets who operate in divination (and don't even know it and wouldn't admit to it if this were shown to them from the Word) and these now are proclaiming that Donald Trump is the way to salvation for America!

How do I know that divination is at work in Mark Taylor? Because as I listened recently to Mark being interviewed, my attention was drawn to what he said regarding a “visitation experience” he said happened to him in 2006. In that “visitation” he said he was told an “angel” had been assigned to him... “for the gift of faith”—now what does that mean??—and who told him this (he just assumes it is God).

However, according to Scripture ONLY the Holy Spirit is the distributor of all of the spiritual gifts—not angels (which should have been his first clue). Many in the NAR movement claim to have “visitations from angels that bring them messages”—which is something the Bible clearly warns us about...

But even if we, or an angel from heaven, proclaims any other gospel (i.e. Good News Message) to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed. (Gal 1:8) (Parenthesis mine)

In his prophecy Mark Taylor says America, through Trump's presidency will be restored and be made the most respected, powerful and prosperous nation on earth once again. This is certainly what can be termed a “good news message” that many will love hearing! However, what does the Word say?

[3] CHARMED (Strong's 2266) chabar (khaw-bar'); to join or have fellowship with or become fascinated by a company who are under the spell of or being charmed i.e.. divination

For when they say, "Peace and safety!" then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape. (1 Thess 5:3)

He also stated in his interview that during his "visitation" he was told that his prophetic gift would be in the form of "anointed writing." Many occultists and new agers engage in "automatic writing" or writing under the inspiration of a demonic spirit—which is what Mark Taylor calls "anointed writing."

Writing under the influence of another spirit is a manifestation of sorcery (divination)—called automatic writing which is nothing more than a means for channeling a demonic spirit.

The Holy Spirit will not influence a person to write something that is not Biblical, such as Marks prophecies that are also "omen" based... like his "Great Horse" prophecy that he alluded to during his radio interview.

He stated that the winner of a famous horse race was to be a "sign" (omen) for the end time church when it occurred (which it did occur). When people start looking to "signs (omens) and wonders" (not mentioned in prophetic Scriptures) to give them "prophetic revelation"—beware!

He also stated that he was told that his "assigned angel" was going to hear words from the throne of God (is this angel where Mark gets his messages from?) and this angel would also immediately bring these words to pass.

Mark however, received three prophecies that he said were supposed to happen in 2012, which did not come to pass (immediately when the were given to him).

His explanation for these not immediately coming to pass as he said he was told, was because the Lord told him the church was not ready for their fulfillment. Too many professing Christians today do not understand the many errors that are coming to the surface in false prophecies like these.

They want to hear things that scratch their itching ears instead. Aside from the error these false prophets teach, is the fact that they manage to find a way to excuse themselves when their “prophecies” don’t come to pass. The idea that the “church wasn’t ready” for the fulfillment of what was allegedly told to Taylor by God—is simply a cop-out.

Yes, there are examples where God seemingly changed His mind or modified His plan as in the case of Jonah’s prophecy concerning Nineveh, (which was only a temporary stay of God’s judgment—for Nineveh ultimately was destroyed as Jonah was told to prophesy or with Hezekiah when God gave him an additional 15 years, at which point, the prophet Isaiah had to turn around, go back, and prophesy again to Hezekiah that God had granted his plea (see Isaiah 38; 2 Kings 20).

But today self-proclaimed “prophets” can make all sorts of claims that are never held up to real scrutiny. Those who do attempt to examine their words in light of the Scriptures, are labeled as being divisive, legalistic or pharisaical, because they don’t like anyone daring to question their word from God. Any true prophet will welcome discerning Biblical scrutiny of any prophetic Word that is given to them by God—for they know He would NEVER contradict or go beyond His written word. As I like to say, “a true prophet knows they are just God’s mailman delivering His message,” which means they do not have their own agenda—thus, whether the message is rejected or accepted true prophets understand it is not a personal reflection upon them—for their mission is to “speak the Word only.” As the Lord told me when I started my ministry...

Herald and preach the Word! Keep your sense of urgency, whether the opportunity seems to be favorable or unfavorable. Whether it is convenient or inconvenient, whether it is welcome or unwelcome, you as preacher of the Word are to show people in what way their lives are wrong. And convince them, rebuking and correcting, warning and urging and encouraging them, being unflagging and inexhaustible in patience and teaching. (2 Tim 4:2) AMP

Mark Taylor’s prophecies all revolve around a false Preterist “Dominionist” teaching, which states the last day church is going to usher in a world wide “harvest” (revival)—which is not what the Bible prophesies for the end times church. I was taught, while I was involved with the NAR movement, that an end-time harvest was about to take place, and millions were going to be ushered into the Kingdom of God on earth. However, when it came to their false teachings and prophecies the Scriptures being used to validate these were either being allegorized when they should be taken as literal (or vice versa) or they were being taken out of context, completely misinterpreted or the Scriptures were added to or taken away from. As with all NAR prophets, Mark believes the church must establish God’s literal Kingdom upon the earth so Jesus can come back—for which there is no Biblical foundation for this idea. Many Christians are going to fall for Mark's false prophecy and other revelations and teachings that are built upon this—all because they want to see America restored and not destroyed by antichrist as clearly revealed in Scripture.

Throughout modern times, there have been people rising to the top of the heap with one claim of prophecy after another. Even though these prophecies often failed to materialize, people continue to chase after what they hear as something "new."

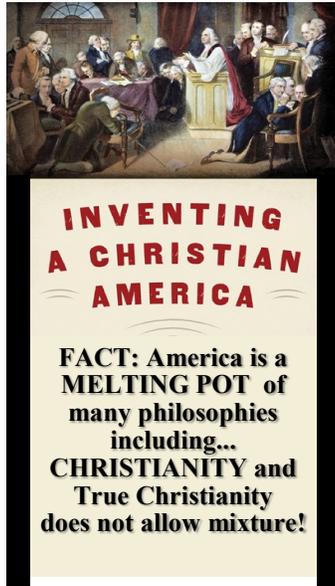

People make decisions based solely upon how it makes them feel about something. Forget absolute truth from Scripture! People today prefer to determine truth subjectively or base it upon how it resonates within them rather than objectively through studying the Scriptures.

For the time will come when people will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear. (2 Timothy 4:3).

Why does this continue? Why do people refuse to hear the truth and hang on so firmly to the false belief that America can or will be turned around, by putting their faith in false prophetic words?

Mainly it boils down to a failure to understand God's prophetic plan as rightly revealed in His Word. What is astonishing is the number of comments found in the comments section under the video interview with Taylor that I listened to on YouTube, which supported Mark! Some were praising God for choosing Donald Trump to save this nation from destruction.

One comment from a person listening to the interview with Taylor said: “Let me note I have sent this off to my Pastors, and my church family is so excited as we all are. I can’t say his prophecy is false hope because GOD doesn’t give false anything...”

Thus, anything that gets us “excited” cannot be false?! Sadly, these people are not using any form of discernment at all. They are merely going by how the information from Taylor makes them feel. They choose to believe that Trump is the guy who should be our next president—because he is chosen by God—thus, God will work in and through him to bring America back from destruction. Which means, they are not prepared or preparing for what really lies ahead.

Those hearing and receiving this false “good news message” (which is a false gospel—because it is not according to the gospel Jesus preached in Matthew 24) are becoming excited and filled with a false hope of being able to avoid the pain of destruction and persecution occurring during the tribulation period, which is prophesied to happen before Jesus returns. Thus, those believing this exciting false word don’t need (or want) anything further to prove anything contrary to their false belief (including Scripture).

Satan doesn’t want people to see the truth so he works very hard to create confusion through false prophets and teachers and their “complex prophecies and teachings” that are designed to pull the wool over the eyes of people who pride themselves on seeking “spiritual knowledge”—but cannot see beyond themselves. The more complex the so-called prophecy or revelation, the better because it keeps people’s eyes off the clarity and simplicity of Scripture and on the prophet or teacher to explain what is false.

When people become “fascinated” by a so-called prophecy that sounds so “spiritually deep,” they find themselves in awe of (i.e. fascinated and charmed by) not only by what is being said but also by the person speaking what is said. Those being charmed by false prophetic words that promise things like world wide restoration and revival—become unwilling to listen to what the Bible really does teach regarding the truth concerning the end times.

So, until a person comes out from under the “spell” of what is false—they continue to view what they hear through the confusion and defiling influence of sorcery. When pride is present this will keep defiling demonic influences ruling their life.

There were times I came under the charming influence of what I heard my favorite false teachers and prophets say, but when the Holy Spirit would bring me the Scriptures that contradicted what I heard—I had a choice to make—I could rationalize and argue the truth away or ignore it all together. It is always painfully humbling to admit we have been in error! But the pain of humility is our key to staying out of the deception that Jesus said was a big earmark for these end-times.

...the disciples came to Him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?" ...And Jesus answered and said to them ...For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the world until this time, no, nor ever shall be... For false christs (literally: false anointed ones) and false prophets will rise and show great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect. (Matt 24:3-4, 21, 24) (Parenthesis mine)

The Scriptures are clear that things do not get better as they lead up to the return of Jesus. The Bible states that society will grow worse and worse until the entire planet experiences what is called the Great Tribulation (known as the final "week" of the 70 weeks discussed in Daniel 9). The Bible's description for this period of time is akin to hell on earth (i.e. Matthew 24, Mark 13, Luke 21, etc.).

Amillennialists and Postmillennialists like NAR self-proclaimed prophet Mark Taylor believe that as the Church works harder, spreading their false gospel through evangelism, more people will become saved and can become better informed and will then help to work and change society so that America becomes (once again) what is thought to be a "Christian nation." This idea in itself is also false if you do your research—America has never been a "Christian nation." No way would a "Christian nation" be founded by Satan's Illuminati with their NWO agenda. Anyone taking the time and effort to do the research will find this is what our nation is truly founded upon. The Illuminati has always used the Bible for their own means. Americans who are spiritually ignorant concerning the Illuminati and are spiritually undiscerning and who don't know how to rightly divide the Word of God, have been brainwashed by the public schools and the government from childhood to adulthood by a false American history, which has been mis-taught to brainwash the Biblically ignorant and spiritually undiscerning. Those who have found out the truth concerning our history have been demonized by the government and other professing Christians and labeled as crazy "conspiracy theorists" and are now even being labeled as "terrorists!"

Sadly, many (including Christians) believe as I once did that America started out as a Christian nation but was derailed by liberals and atheists (termed "progressives" today). A vast majority of professing Christians today (through the direct or indirect influence of the NAR) now believe Christians are to wrest control away from these progressives and bring America back under the moral and spiritual code of Scripture. I don't find this agenda anywhere in Scripture, however I fully realize how people can get to that point of belief, when they lose sight of or are ignorant of what the Word of God does teach us. In order for Amillennialism and Postmillennialism to be true, portions of Scripture have to be allegorized, twisted or ignored as opposed to simply understanding Scripture in its most basic, literal sense. Unauthorized allegorizing of the Bible is done because it fits the agenda of those who falsely believe that if Christians work harder to take over the "7 Mountains of a society" (see the illustration on page 7), then evil will be pushed back to the point that we can establish the Kingdom of God on earth and Jesus will be able to return to earth. They falsely teach that currently, He cannot return because the Church – the vehicle through which He works – is weak, unspiritual, divided, and blind. They believe if the Church would simply realize her full potential, she would be able to change America for Christ, enabling Him to return physically to this earth sooner than later—this line of thinking is not only ridiculous but totally unscriptural!

Even if Donald Trump becomes president, that would still not validate this false prophet's prophecy. God is certainly the one who raises up and puts down leaders and nations—to fulfill His purposes, especially in these end-times. God has allowed the Illuminati to build this nation for His eternal purposes.

"Praise the name of God forever and ever, for he has all wisdom and power... He controls the course of world events; he removes kings and sets up other kings. (Dan 2:20-21) NLT

I was blessed to have been born in this country, and am thankful for all I have enjoyed as a citizen of America. However, this nation is an ungodly nation with many godly people in it and this has always been the case. Just as the Bible prophesied, there has been an increase in sin that has taken place, the demonic has gained a great degree of influence over the minds of people (in every nation of the world).

Evil is on the move and just because that's happening, it does not mean that God is powerless or unable to complete His will unless the Church steps up to the plate and transforms and changes things. The church is on this earth as God's means for salvation so people who are condemned to hell for eternity, can be given the opportunity to repent and be given eternal life with God... and escape the prophesied endtime judgments. Again, we are not here to change governments, economies and ideologies. The Bible is very clear as to what is going to happen in these areas in the end-times. Not having a right understanding of end-times events and their timing is going to be the demise of many!

We must also understand that God is giving Satan near-free reign over this world so that he will have every opportunity to bring his vows of (Isaiah 14... Known as his 5 "I will's") to fruition. Remember, his last vow was that he would become like the Most High (Isaiah 14:14). God is giving Satan the chance to make that happen, which is why we are moving toward the Tribulation, which is the reason Satan's spiritual son (Antichrist) will rule this world in the final Gentile empire as revealed in (Daniel 2); which is also why Satan's attempted public humiliation of God will end when Jesus returns physically and destroys Antichrist with His word!

The truth is, people will ultimately believe what they want to believe and oftentimes, Satan doesn't have to work very hard to have his lies accepted as truth, especially when people become stubborn through their sin of idolatry (which includes cultural and nationalism worship).

Lance Walnue is a well known false NAR "7" Mountain dominion teacher

Too many people want to believe what is false because it sounds soo good. No one wants or likes to hear bad news and this is exactly what we are being faced with if we receive the truth regarding the end-times from God's Word. This is so clearly spelled out in Scripture that it is difficult to miss, yet people continue to miss it. Why? Because they don't want to "lose" America. The "land of plenty" and where we are "free" to indulge ourselves in anyway we please. What they don't realize is that they have already LOST America! We have lost the America we knew as a children in the 50's and 60's—which was a much more moral and simpler America—but it was still not a "Christian" America. Also, as I stated, people are being deceived because they don't want to be inconvenienced, or persecuted, however—ready or not it's coming, folks!

Rather than accepting the truth that God is still in the business of saving souls (not governments), many professing Christians still prefer to chase after things that offer some "light" in the darkness—even if it comes from the "angel of light" himself!

Brother against Brother

While working on this newsletter I was sent an email that alerted me to something another popular and well known NAR teacher, by the name of Lance Walnue, who is telling disillusioned NAR followers, who were encouraged by them, to put their hope in Ted Cruz as their presidential candidate (because he is an NAR professing Christian). Walnue is quoted as saying [4] that he has now prophesied that Donald Trump is (allegorically) being referred to by God as... "an Isaiah 45 "Cyrus Ruler" and that his success will be proportionate to the unity of the church and its agreement in intercession impacting his advisors... that will make him open to wise counsel." This shows the false "prophetic word" from Mark Taylor is already being built upon by other NAR prophets. In other words, just in case Donald Trump does not become president or he turns out not be the prophesied savior of America, it will be because certain Christians failed to agree and become unified with the NAR's "prophetic word" that said Trump was chosen by God to save America or because "certain" Christians were not unified in their (NAR) intercession. Walnue also stated it has also been "prophesied" that ..."The division among evangelicals regarding Trump will expose a fault line in the church, and the result will redefine kingdom (God's) leadership for the next decade – and advance some voices that have been hidden."

I am discerning this is an ominous warning to those who claim to be Christians but who do not embrace or submit themselves to the NAR's "self-proclaimed" leadership of apostles and prophets. C. Peter Wagner proclaimed himself to be the "pope" if you will—over the world wide evangelical church. Thus, Wagner and those who are seen as church leaders by the NAR have the agenda to dictate how the church should become unified and engage in "spiritual warfare" to achieve their goal of world dominion. Those who don't submit to NAR oversight are seen as "evangelicals that threaten to divide the body of Christ (i.e. they are seen as divisive and therefore a danger to achieving church unity and global dominion). This could mean real trouble for us who are not NAR advocates! Will they turn us in to the government as threats to this nation's security?

When I was part of the prophetic/apostolic movement in the mid 90's (before it became recognized as the NAR) I found that when I could not agree with certain things and made my views known in light of Scripture, I was instantly branded as being "divisive" by their leadership.

This movement, because of its agenda to be empowered by world governments will have to align itself more and more with the NWO in order for its ministries to be protected and to continue receiving benefits such as tax exempt status, tax credits (for preaching on what agrees with governmental policy... or avoiding what disagrees with the government) or receiving government funding for church faith based initiatives, which many NAR followers are involved in. Those within this religious-governmental alliance, will be forced to comply with the NWO in order to keep their governmental benefits— that may include being able to buy and sell when the time comes and also to achieve their goal of world domination. Because this movement strives to befriend itself with the wealthy and influential leaders of this world and because they believe they are to be immersed in the "7" arenas of secular and religious society, their deception runs deep as well as their ability to

"charm" their followers, which is very alarming. Jesus said:

You adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. (James 4:4)

This also means that those who disagree with this apostate church system and the NWO will not only be seen as enemies of the state, but also as enemies of their NWO religious (false prophet's system). There is coming a time when those "evangelicals" who are seen as "divisive" and causing a "fault line" in the church, will find themselves being betrayed (and turned in to the government as enemies) by those who have aligned themselves with the apostate antichrist church system ruled by the false prophet. NAR disdain for those who question them or their agenda is an earmark of what is coming. I recently heard a well known NAR prophet describing those who question their (NAR) prophesies or those who dare to find fault with what they teach by using the Bible to reveal their error, being called legalistic, and pharisaical, and also being ruled by a Jezebel spirit.

And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another... (why? Because...)

many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.
(Matt 24:10-11)

The NAR (New Apostolic Reformation) movement is rapidly gaining powerful influence in the United States and around the globe, and it aims to advance a right-wing social and economic agenda—all while reinventing the structure of (evangelical) Christianity. Professing Christian Political NAR adherents such as Rick Perry, Sarah Palin and Ted Cruz to mention only a few, are some of the influential political figures in the movement. The New Apostolic Reformation (NAR) movement seeks to establish a “fourth house” within Christendom, distinct from Catholicism, Protestantism and Orthodox Christianity. This “fourth house” relies more upon supernatural experiences (that often go beyond what the Scriptures reveal) than it does upon “rightly dividing the word of truth” (2 Tim 2:15). NAR growth is achieved by discreetly and subtly recruiting pastors, especially of independent congregations and nondenominational churches by assimilating members from other churches through cell group meetings, and by Church planting. Those drawn to this movement are deceived into believing that world transformation can actually take place, by becoming involved in the cares and the affairs of this life. This is not however, what we are taught in Scripture:

As Christ's soldier, do not let yourself become tied up in the affairs of this life (the “7” mountains) for then you cannot satisfy the one who has enlisted you in his army.
(2 Tim 2:4) NLT

Being Caught Unaware of an Inescapable Reality

As previously stated, those Christians being caught up in this dangerous deceptive movement are not aware of the impending devastation that they are not prepared to face. Jesus warned us of the horrible times that we would be facing which would precede His return to earth:

“For as a snare it (the tribulation) will come on all them (including Christians) that dwell on the face of the whole earth... Watch therefore, and pray always, that you may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.
(Luke 21:34-36) (Parenthesis mine for clarity).

Jesus said we are to pray that we be accounted worthy, and this phrase is translated from one Greek word (NT:2729) katischuo (kat-is-khoo'-o), which the CWSD: says is used in a hostile sense, meaning to overcome, to prevail against, get the upper hand... In order to ESCAPE the horrors of the time of tribulation that will happen preceding the return of Jesus.

Escaping is not referring to being raptured out of this horrible time of tribulation, but to fighting against whatever Satan has planned for our destruction, in order to overcome him.

The word escape is the Greek word (Strong's 1628) ekpheugo (ek-fyoo'-go) and it denotes fleeing out of a place... and in this case it is the place where any of the “horrors” of Satan's wrath are taking place at a given time.

Rightly Discerning the Signs of the Times

If we are not rightly discerning the signs of the end-times—the consequences are going to be deadly. Jesus said...

Hypocrites! You know how to discern the face of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times... A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas (i.e. who prophesied coming destruction that led to repentance). (Matt 16:3-4)

The word discern and its derivatives are translations of the Greek word (Strong's 1252) diakrino in the New Testament. It means "to distinguish, to separate out by a diligent search, to examine." Discernment is the ability to properly discriminate or make determinations based upon a diligent search or examination. It is related to wisdom. The Word of God itself is said to discern the thoughts and intentions of one's heart (Hebrews 4:12).

Therefore if we, like the Bereans are willing to make a "diligent search" and examine "signs" in light of Scripture, we will be given wisdom from God to be able to discern between what is a true sign from God and a false sign from the demonic realm. A discerning mind demonstrates wisdom and insight that go far beyond what is seen and heard (such as supernatural occurrences).

Both true and false signs are a REALITY (they are supernatural events). But without wisdom and discernment we are open to human imagination and demonic deception regarding their source. Please notice in the above text, how many times the word "sign" is used (4 x), which tells me Jesus wanted us to understand the importance of discerning "signs." The emphasis is not on the "sign" itself, but on what power source (God's or satanic power) is being used to create the sign. <sup>[5]</sup>

Jesus also associated hypocrites with the lack of discernment concerning which power source was being used. This is important because people are able to operate in the "supernatural apart from having God's power—because they are being empowered by Satan. A hypocrite is one who is falsely representing what is suppose to be of God. This means when a professing Christian has fallen prey to deception, and are operating in the supernatural by demonic power, they are misrepresenting God, because they cannot discern the difference. The religious Jewish Pharisees who claimed to be servants of the true and living God could not discern the true "signs" that Jesus demonstrated, which is why Jesus called them Hypocrites. Those who fail to search and examine the Scriptures to make sure that the "signs" (i.e. like prophetic words and revelations) are rightly aligning with the Bible, run the risk of becoming "charmed" by the "signs" they see. Keep in mind the Pharisees hated it when Jesus used the Scriptures to prove a truth. There are those who claim to examine the Scriptures but in truth they are only looking for Scriptures to justify a false belief. This is why those in this place will lack discernment and wisdom, despite their attempts to use Scripture to validate what they believe. Unless we are seeking God and His Word with a willingness to change our mind, if we are found to be in error about what we presently

[5] The word SIGNS is the Greek word (Strong's 4592) semeion (say-mi'-on); and denotes: anything supernatural that is seen as or anything indicating the supernatural is at work. The CWSD: States" The value of the "sign" is not so much found in what the "sign" is but in what it indicates, which is the he "power" one has obtained for doing the "sign."

believe to be Biblical truth, when in fact it isn't— we will remain deceived. Because of these things, many Christians and their leaders are not rightly discerning the truth of God's Word or the signs of the times. May we be determined in these perilous times, to become and remain teachable, correctable and open to hearing the truth from God's Word—no matter how or by what means God chooses to use to give us His truth. Jesus is against those who claim to be his "ministers" (priests), but do not know (rightly discern) His Word, but instead misuse it, to keep those who follow them ignorant of the truth.

May we have ears to Hear what Jesus is saying to us through His true prophet Hosea, to those who claim to be Professing Christian "Kings and Priests" here in America. Because we failed as Christians in this nation to be what a true Christian is to be and to do what a true Christian should do concerning our God given ministry of reconciling people to God from their sin and Satan's rule over them...because we failed we are now going to reap the whirlwind...

Hear the word of the Lord, O people (Professing Christians of America)! The Lord has brought charges against you, saying: "There is no faithfulness, no kindness, no knowledge of God in your land (America)... (Thus) the people make promises and break them; they kill and steal and commit adultery. There is violence everywhere— one murder after another... That is why your land is in mourning, and everyone is wasting away. Even the wild animals, the birds of the sky, and the fish of the sea are disappearing... "Don't point your finger at someone else and try to pass the blame! My complaint, you priests (professing Christians), is with you... So you will stumble in broad daylight, and your false prophets will fall with you in the darkness... My people are being destroyed because they don't know me (The Word). Since you priests refuse to know me (the Word), I refuse to recognize you as my priests. Since you have forgotten the laws of your God, I will forget to bless your children... The more priests there are, the more they sin against me. They have exchanged the glory of God for the shame of idols... "When the people bring their offerings, the priests get fed. So the priests are glad when the people sin (by giving you offerings)... 'And what the priests do, the people also do.' So now I will punish both priests and people for their wicked deeds... They will eat and still be hungry. They will play the prostitute and gain nothing from it, for they have deserted the Lord to worship other gods. "Wine (alluding to "deception") has robbed my people of their discernment. NLT (Hos 4:1-11) †

"Continue in the faith."

Charles Spurgeon

And when they had preached the gospel to that city and made many disciples...strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying, "We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God." (Acts 14:21-22)

Perseverance is the badge of true saints. The Christian life is not a beginning only in the ways of God, but also a continuance in the same as long as life lasts. It is with a Christian as it was with the great Napoleon: he said, "Conquest has made me what I am, and conquest must maintain me."

So, under God, dear saint in the Lord, conquest has made you what you are, and conquest must sustain you. Your motto must be, "Excelsior." He only is a true conqueror, and shall be crowned at the last, who continues till war's trumpet is blown no more. Perseverance is, therefore, the target of all our spiritual enemies. The world does not object to your being a Christian for a time, if she can but tempt you to cease your pilgrimage, and settle down to buy and sell with her in Vanity Fair.

The flesh will seek to ensnare you, and to prevent your pressing on to glory. "It is weary work being a pilgrim; come, give it up. Am I always to be mortified? Am I never to be indulged? Give me at least a furlough from this constant warfare."

Satan will make many a fierce attack on your perseverance; it will be the mark for all his arrows. He will strive to hinder you in service: he will insinuate that you are doing no good; and that you want rest. He will endeavor to make you weary of suffering, he will whisper, "Curse God, and die."

Or he will attack your steadfastness: "What is the good of being so zealous? Be quiet like the rest; sleep as do others, and let your lamp go out as the other virgins do." Or he will assail your doctrinal sentiments: "Why do you hold to these Biblical doctrines? Sensible men are getting more liberal; they are removing the old landmarks: fall in with the times."

Wear your shield, Christian, therefore, close upon your armor, and cry mightily unto God, that by His Spirit you may endure to the end!

SHUT US UP AND SHUT US DOWN

By Randy Conway

The true Watchmen are sounding out the warning
But there are those who want to:

Shut us up and shut us down
Some want to turn this move of God around.
The evil powers that spent years to get us here
They will stop at nothing using laws and threats and fear.

The true Watchmen are sounding out the warning
But there are those who want to:

Shut us up and shut us down
Censoring Truth could be the local church in town.

Calling the Truth intolerant I am perplexed
Where is tolerance of sin taught in the Biblical text?

The true Watchmen are sounding out the warning
But there are those who want to:
Shut us up and shut us down,
Satan desires the Watchmen's voice to be drown.
When God moves, the gates of hell will not prevail
God or His watchmen will not be silenced or curtailed.

The true Watchmen are sounding out the warning,
There may be those who want to shut us up and shut us down - but:

The Watchmen will not shut up!
God will not be shut down!
The deniers will drink from a bitter cup
They will meet the Sword of the Lord in the final showdown.
Therefore, DON'T SHUT UP AND DON'T SHUT DOWN.

And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

ALERT!

Consider this article in light of the accelerating push to mandate and enforce vaccinations across the planet

Published on May 24, 2016

www.undergroundworldnews.com

An Article in the New York Times, 3/9/2015, "Protection Without a Vaccine" describes the frontier of research. Here are key quotes that illustrate the use of synthetic genes to "protect against disease," while changing the genetic makeup of humans. This is not science fiction:

"By delivering synthetic genes into the muscles of the [experimental] monkeys, the scientists are essentially re-engineering the animals to resist disease." "The sky's the limit," said Michael Farzan, an immunologist at Scripps and lead author of the new study."

"The first human trial based on this strategy — called immunoprophylaxis by gene transfer, or I.G.T. — is underway, and several new ones are planned. I.G.T. is altogether different from traditional vaccination. It is instead a form of gene therapy. Scientists isolate the genes that produce powerful antibodies against certain diseases and then synthesize artificial versions. The genes are placed into viruses and injected into human tissue, usually muscle."

Here is the punch line: "The viruses invade human cells with their DNA payloads, and the synthetic gene is incorporated into the recipient's own DNA. If all goes well, the new genes instruct the cells to begin manufacturing powerful antibodies."

Read that again: "the synthetic gene is incorporated into the recipient's own DNA." Alteration of the human genetic makeup. Permanent alteration.

The Times article taps Dr. David Baltimore for an opinion, they wrote:

“Still, Dr. Baltimore says that he envisions that some people might be leery of a vaccination strategy that means altering their own DNA, even if it prevents a potentially fatal disease.”

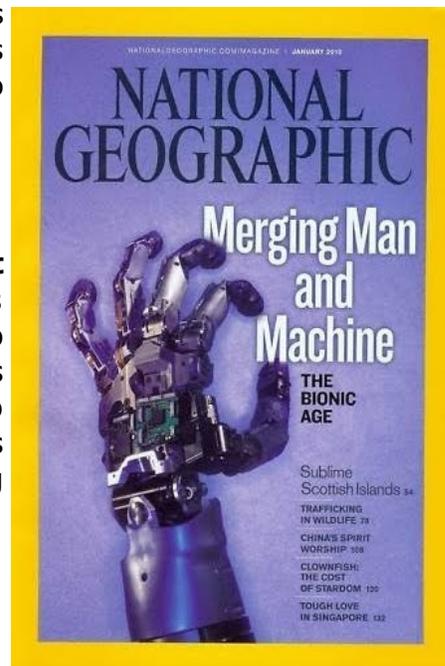

Yes, some people might be leery. If they have two or three working brain cells. Let’s take this further. Under the cover of preventing disease (and all good covert ops float a laudatory goal to conceal their true intent), vaccines are ideal carriers for all sorts of genes that would be permanently incorporated into the human structure.

The enormous tonnage of propaganda about vaccines, and the resultant mandatory laws that enforce vaccination, create a powerful channel along which re-engineering is eminently possible. Synthetic genes injected into billions of humans would form a grand experiment to create an altered species. [6]

Karen’s Conclusion:

Remember Satan said...

“I will be like the Most High” (Isa14:14) and his agenda has been and still is to re-create mankind in his image. His evil agenda is to be able to accomplish this through present day advancing transhumanism technology.

PLUM ISLAND CONSPIRACY
A documentary film by Jesse Ventura

The Prophet Isaiah talks about a time in (Isa 60:1) when gross darkness covers the earth. We are living in that time. God's people are also told by the Prophet to discern what is in the darkness. This DVD is part of a series of timely documentaries that exposes the NWO shadow government's EVIL experimentation upon animals and the human population. These experiments were started by Nazi scientists who were brought to Plum Island, MA. After WWII. Most Christians are not aware of this hidden evil that has released diseases and monsters upon our land. Without clear knowledge and discernment Christians will be overtaken by the powers of darkness, so that even the very elect will end up being deceived and taken captive, by antichrist forces. It is time to awaken God's people to what is taking place around them.

There have been many articles and topics about how food is changing and being effected by science. This is called Genetically Modified food, or GMO food. But what about Genetically Modified Humans? This is the topic known as Transhumanism. This is not a distant projection but activity that is presently being carried out. It's in our military budgets; it's in DARPA, it's in a Presidentially approved budget this year. Jesus states in (Matthew 24:37), "As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man." What exactly was taking place in the days of Noah? There was this broad genetic corruption that led to the corruption of what God had made. This year's Presidentially approved DARPA budget has tens of millions of dollars of budget in it specifically to use this kind of technology to create a new blueprint for our soldiers, future soldiers, on the battlefield to be genetically modified!
